Worthington Cylinders Unveils Redesigned Web Site

COLUMBUS, Ohio – March 10, 2009 – Worthington Cylinders, a Worthington Industries company (NYSE: WOR), announced today the launch of its redesigned Web site – WorthingtonCylinders.com.

The new site is designed to better illustrate the company's heritage and quality products, which span from industrial gas cylinders and LPG cylinders to refrigerant cylinders and consumer products, including hand torches, hand torch cylinders, camping fuel cylinders and Balloon Time® helium balloon kits.

"The fresh new look of WorthingtonCylinders.com more closely aligns us with our goal of being one of the easiest organizations to do business with," said Dusty McClintock, vice president of sales for Worthington Cylinders. "We are now positioned to provide a wide array of information on our entire line of products to our global customer base."

New and improved WorthingtonCylinders.com functionality includes:

- Thorough search engine for quick access to specific information
- More robust product details and specifications
- Expanded multimedia content
- Ability to find product information based on category, applications and specifications
- Detailed contact options

"We are excited about the new opportunities the redesign provides us both as an educational and marketing vehicle," added McClintock.

Worthington Cylinders is the world's leading global supplier of pressure cylinders, continually delivering solutions to its customers while exceeding their expectations in quality, service and value. Worthington Cylinders offers the most complete line of pressure cylinders in the industry, including liquefied petroleum; refrigerant and industrial gas cylinders, airbrake tanks and consumer products.
